There are no additional postings at this time.

Foundation Opportunities

Education, Environment, and Health. The Tellabs Foundation provides grants for: education, particularly engineering, math, and science; the environment; and health and wellness, such as hospitals and health care facilities. Eligible applicants include nonprofits located in areas with Tellabs corporate operations, and involvement by Tellabs employees is important. The deadline for applications is May 30, 2003 for the July board meeting. Grants of at least $10,000 are awarded. For more information, go to: <http://www.tellabs.com> or call Meredith Hilt at (630) 798-2506.

Healthy Children and Families. The Robert Wood Johnson Foundation (RWJF) announces funds for Part Three of "Covering Kids and Families" (CKF), a national initiative to increase the number of eligible children and adults benefiting from public health care coverage programs. Eligible applicants must be current CKF local grantee organizations. The deadline for applications is April 1, 2003. For more information and to apply online, go to: <http://www.rwjf.org/applying/cfpOpen.jsp>.

Local Health Projects. The Robert Wood Johnson Foundation (RWJF) announces funds for its "Local Initiative Funding Partners" (LIFP) program, a partnership with local grantmakers that supports innovative, community based projects to improve health and health care for underserved and at-risk populations. Under LIFP, a local grantmaker proposes a funding partnership with RWJF on behalf of a local applicant to support a project that is consistent with the Foundation's four goals: assuring that all Americans have access to quality health care at a reasonable cost; improving the quality of care and support for people with chronic health conditions; promoting healthy communities and lifestyles; and reducing the personal, social, and economic harm caused by substance abuse – tobacco, alcohol, and illicit drugs. Eligible applicants include public entities or nonprofit organizations with 501(c)(3) status whose projects are nominated by a local funder. The deadline for applications is July 15, 2003. Approximately $100,000-$500,000 in matching grants will be awarded over a three or four-year period. For more information or to apply online, go to: <http://www.rwjf.org/applying/cfpOpen.jsp>.

Resources & Announcements

Grants Information Resource Center (GIRC). The Office of Partnerships and Grants Development (OPGD) is pleased to announce the official opening of its new resource center at One Judiciary Square, 441 4th Street, NW, Suite 200 South. The GIRC will provide technical assistance that connects DC Government agencies, nonprofit and faith-based organizations to information about resources that improve community services in the city. The primary focus of the GIRC is to assist emerging and small nonprofits that either lack computer access or the knowledge to best use their existing computer technology to identify grant, capacity building, and other related resource information online. Featured in the GIRC are four workstations with funding research databases and access to the Internet. The Center also has a small library of printed materials. Access to the GIRC is free of charge but does require an appointment. Call (202) 727-8900 to schedule an appointment.

Technology Opportunities Program. The Department of Commerce (DOC)/National Telecommunications and Information Administration (NTIA) recently announced that Congress has appropriated $15.5 million for FY2003 for the "Technology Opportunities Program" (TOP). A Notice of Funding Availability will be released soon with a short turnaround time. Therefore, NTIA is encouraging possible applicants to prepare by taking advantage of resources on its website, including a review of last year's application kit. To access this information, go to:
<http://www.ntia.doc.gov/otiahome/top/grants/application.htm>

Technology Tracking Survey. Gifts In Kind International surveys the charitable sector to determine the state of technology among nonprofit organizations so that they can more effectively inform the technology industry of your needs. This year's survey will gauge the usage and effectiveness of the Internet in the nonprofit sector. Go to: <http://www.giftsinkind.org/information/research.asp> to complete the survey. The deadline to submit the survey is February 28, 2003.

Urban Education Information. Jobs for the Future offers an on-line resource guide examining how urban nonprofits and schools can improve learning environments for their students. To access this information, go to: www.jff.org, and select "From the Margins to the Mainstream: Expanding Learning Options for Urban Youth."
